Hard work starts now as new Councillors sworn in at morning ceremony

Michael Warren
Editor

THE FIVE faces tasked with guiding the Douglas Shire until at least 2028 were officially sworn in during a ceremony at Council's Front St headquarters on Monday morning.

Fresh Councillors Michael Joseph Rees and Damian Meadows joined returnees Abigail Noli and Roy Zammataro alongside new Mayor Lisa Scomazzon

for the formalities.

Roy Zammataro edged Damian Meadows for Deputy Mayor when Councillors voted on that appointment at a meeting on Tuesday morning.

"Today is a special occasion, it's great to see so many community members in attendance to see the new Council team sworn in," Mayor Lisa Scomazzon told Newsport on Monday.

"The real work starts now - it's time to get down to business."
